

Application Process for Filling Vacancy on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

The Southern Kern Unified School District is seeking applications to fill seven vacancies within the seven-member Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC). The CBOC oversees the implementation of Measure H, approving the issuance of $24,000,000 in General Obligation Bonds to bring facility improvements and renovations to the district's schools. The appointee will serve a two-year term beginning May 2018 in the capacity of "Community Member-at-Large" and will be eligible to serve for up to two additional two-year terms.

In order to apply, you must . . .

- a) Be at least 18 years of age
- b) Not be an employee or official of this district
- c) Not be employed as or by a vendor, contractor, or consultant of this district
- d) Be willing and able to attend quarterly meetings of the committee (Quarterly meetings are typically scheduled on the last Wednesday of January, March, June and September at district headquarters and school sites beginning at 5:00 p.m.)

Please note that there will be a preference for residents within the physical boundaries of the Southern Kern Unified School District. Preference may be given for individuals possessing skills, training and experience in finance, facilities, and/or construction or related experience.

Application forms are available as follows:

1. Pages 3 – 6 of this document
2. Online at www.skusd.k12.ca.us
3. At the district administrative offices, 2601 Rosamond Blvd, Rosamond, CA 93560

The completed application can be submitted the following ways: Scanned as PDF document, attached and emailed to aavanesyans@skusd.k12.ca.us; faxed to (661) 256-7074; mailed to SKUSD, Business Services, 2601 Rosamond Blvd, Rosamond, CA 93560; or personal delivery to the: Reception Desk, SKUSD Office, 2601 Rosamond Blvd, Rosamond, CA 93560.

Once applications are received, all eligible and qualified applicants will be reviewed by a screening committee. After screening is complete, selected applicants will be invited to attend a Governing Board meeting and will answer questions from Board members. Selection will be made subsequently at that Board meeting.

Please contact Arik Avanesyans at 661.256.5000 ext 1125 with any questions.

As a committee member, your duties would include . . .

Receive and review copies of the annual, independent financial audits of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds until all of those proceeds have been expended for the school facilities projects.

Receive and review copies of the annual, independent performance audits to ensure that funds have been expended only on the projects set forth under Measure H.

Ensure that no bond revenues are used for any teacher salaries or to supplant administrative salaries or other school operating expenses.

Additional Activities . . .

In addition to the above, and in furtherance of its purpose, the committee may engage in any of the following activities:

- Inspecting school facilities and grounds to ensure that bond revenues are expended as promised to the voters.
- Reviewing copies of any deferred maintenance proposals or plans developed by the district and provided to the committee.
- Reviewing efforts by the district to optimize bond revenues by implementing cost-saving measures, including but not limited to, all of the following:
 - Mechanisms designed to reduce the costs of (a) professional fees and (b) site preparation;
 - Recommendations regarding (a) the joint use of core facilities and (b) the use of cost-effective and efficient reusable facility plans; and
 - Mechanisms designed to reduce costs by incorporating efficiencies in school site design
- The committee may review documents provided to them by the Governing Board and make recommendations. However, the Board, in its sole discretion, may act on the recommendations, as it deems appropriate.

ETHICS POLICY STATEMENT

This Ethics Policy Statement provides general guidelines for committee members to follow in carrying out their roles. Not all ethical issues that committee members face are covered in this statement. However, this statement captures some of the critical areas that help define ethical and professional conduct for committee members. The provisions of this statement were developed from existing laws, rules, policies and procedures as well as from concepts that define generally accepted good business practices. Committee members are expected to strictly adhere to the provisions of this Ethics Policy. In addition, each CBOC member is required to complete a Form 700, Statement of Economic Interests, upon appointment to the CBOC, annually, and upon leaving the CBOC.

POLICY

- CONFLICT OF INTEREST – A committee member shall not attempt to influence a district decision related to: (1) any contract funded by bond proceeds or (2) any construction project which will benefit the committee member's outside employment, business, or personal finances or benefit an immediate family member, such as a spouse, child or parent.
- OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT – A committee member shall not influence a district decision related to any construction project involving the interests of a person with whom the member has an agreement concerning current or future employment, or remuneration of any kind.
- COMMITMENT TO UPHOLD LAW – A committee member shall uphold the federal and California Constitutions, the laws and regulations of the United States and the State of California (particularly the Education Code) and all other applicable government entities, and the policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the Grossmont Union High School District.
- COMMITMENT TO DISTRICT – A committee member shall place the interests of the district above any personal or business interests while serving in their role as a CBOC member.

I have read and understood the above Ethics Policy and will abide by its provisions.
